To Whom it may concern:

It is our pleasure to write a recommendation letter for the services of Jill Garrison owner of the company "Jill of all Trades", Jill has completed various jobs for our company over a period of 7 years.

We hire her services to help with the constant up keep of painting for the inside of our facility doors, offices ,hallways , bathrooms, stairs and floors.

Jill has also been hired in the past to install a large countertop ,shelving and door kick plates for our warehouse as well

Exterior work has consisted of the loading dock doors to be painted and the construction of several sets of stairs for our warehouse yard trailers.

These jobs have been completed at our company's convenience, which may include her services during odd hours of a night schedule or on the weekends as well.

Clean up and dependability are our praise for Jill with every job completion.

We have appreciated her friendly and courteous service, that she has developed over the years with the many staff and management.

We highly recommend Jill for her services of painting and general maintenance that she has provided us with.

Sincerely

Bill Headon,
